

[1855.]

Dear Anne

I want your advice.
When W.L.G. wrote his good letter to Howe & his Come though I rejoiced that he did it, yet the reasoning did not so fully convince me ~~that~~ to make me follow his example.
I could not quite see feel his argument -

I have just read Howe's violent letter in the Lib. - & it is borne upon me to write to Stone thus

(Sir I have just read Howe's letter to W.L.G. - I ~~will~~ Please strike my name from your list of lecturers Yrs truly
W.P.

Ms. A.9.2.28.35

But wishing to do nothing that looks silly or petulant

I want to ask how such a course strikes you -

Have had no right to such an insolent letter to Garrison - I have no right to expect any friend of Garrison's to appear with him at a platform after he has published such insinuations
